Regulating our Future - The FSA Project

15th March 2018

Central London
Venue

The Food Standards Agency acknowledges that the current regulatory framework is outdated and the Agency has committed to introducing a new model which is flexible and which recognises the diversity of the modern food industry. It promises to recognize the extent to which many companies invest in compliance so that valuable resource can be focused in high risk areas and the UK food industry is equipped for trade outside the EU.

Our guests will explore the implications for all sectors of the food industry, the value of independent assurance schemes and the potential for self-regulation.

Confirmed speakers are Michael Jackson, Head of Regulatory Standards and Assurance, The Food Standards Agency. Tony Lewis, Head of Policy, The Chartered Institute of Environmental Health and Darryl Thomson, Head of Safety, Mitchells and Butlers.

Places are limited to 25 delegates to ensure that this remains an intimate and informative 1/2 day programme for all.

Cost: £50 + VAT (Members), £85 + VAT (Non-members), £15 +VAT (Students) per delegate

Time: 9.00am—12.30pm

Venue: Ashfords, 1 New Fetter Lane, London, EC4A 1AN

Continental Breakfast Buffet and certificate of attendance are included in the price.
