Brexit Update

*Online Session* 2nd March 2021

As the UK has now officially left the EU hear from our expert speakers on some key updates post Brexit.

There have been some important changes to food labelling and this session will summarise the key points of interest.

The importation and exportation has also resulted in some challenges and our expert speakers will identify those and also update on other important information.

Session 1

Post Brexit analysis for Food labelling - what do we now know for certain?

- Implementation into UK law and EU Regulations not in force
- Changes required to be made
- Organic products – Specific requirements
- NI protocol implications
- Transitional period for labelling changes – also any products not within this?
- Goods being sold in the EU
- Placing on the market
- Enforcement

Session 2

Post Brexit Analysis - Import / export requirements – Did a trade deal give false hope?

- Products of animal origin (POAO)
- Export Health Certificates and restrictions for export
- Organic products
- Notification requirements for IPAFFS and TRACES
- NI protocol implications
